Dear Certified Interior Designers:

Friday, January 20, 2012 both SJ 66 and HJ 49, Executive Reorganization Plan submitted by the Governor, were heard during floor session. SJ66 ultimately passed as amended, (with the provision for decertification removed from the resolution), passed the Senate 22 – 17.

YEAS--Black, Blevins, Carrico, Colgan, Garrett, Hanger, Martin, McDougle, McWaters, Newman, Norment, Obenshain, Petersen, Reeves, Ruff, Smith, Stanley, Stosch, Stuart, Vogel, Wagner, Watkins--22.

HJ49 ultimately passed 69 – 27 (with 4 not voting) with one technical amendment by Delegate Gilbert that allowed for the provisions passed in the resolution to be placed in the enactment legislation, which will be forthcoming. As of this morning (Saturday), it has not been placed on the system. (We did have a floor amendment lined up to remove the paragraph affecting us, but the political situation did not allow for that to move forward.)

NOT VOTING--Spruill, Torian, Villanueva, Ware, O.--4.

The House will place their bill in a special subcommittee that will include Delegates Jones, Albo, Carr, Gilbert and one other, who I will confirm for you later. We will work the subcommittee to have it removed from the bill.

In the meantime, each resolution will be communicated (transferred) to the other House...meaning HJ49 will go to the Senate and SJ66 will go to the House. The process begins again.

Thank you all for continuing to reach out to your legislators and members of the committees to inform them of your concerns. It is working.

More to come!
